Chair in Business Administration, Banking and Financial Management
Institute for Finance

MICRO CAPS: ACCOMPANYING INNOVATIVE NICHE PLAYERS ALONG THEIR GROWTH PATH

- Katja Boeder, Director, Head of International Strategy,
Investment Consultants, Mandarine Gestion, Paris

After-Work Lectures on Asset and Investment Management

Series of lectures on current developments in Asset and Investment Management. Exchange of ideas amongst professionals of Corporations, Banks, Asset Management, Investment and Insurance Companies, Financial Advisory Services, Tax Administration, Lawyers, Trustees, Fund Managers and Financial Auditors.

Abstract

Katja will make the case for micro caps as a highly interesting asset class with a favourable risk/return profile in terms of growth, valuation and volatility, and substantial market inefficiencies resulting from little analyst coverage, lower liquidity and a strong regional and sector diversification of business profiles. She will dive into the major questions but also prejudices associated with microcaps and try to give answers to the “why” and “how” of managing micro caps, complemented by several examples of innovative growth stories.

Speaker

Before joining Mandarine Gestion in 2008 she was an expatriate at former Commerzbank subsidiary CCR Gestion, Paris, where she served as a VP in charge of French institutional investors. Katja started her career at Commerzbank in 1992 in investment banking, debt capital markets origination. Further roles included origination of syndicated loans and relationship management for Commerzbank’s international asset management subsidiaries. Katja is a graduate (European economics) of the College of Europe, Bruges/ Belgium, and holds a master’s degree in Languages and Economics from the University of Giessen, Germany.

Master (MSc) in Finance

The Master's degree programme in Finance is an internationally recognised Master's degree programme and is currently one of the few English programmes in the German-speaking area with a focus on asset management, risk management and international finance.

This programme is unique thanks to its international approach, its CFA-oriented curriculum and its personal study environment, where students are treated as individuals. Around forty students from all over the world are admitted every year.

Next Start: September 2022
